Knockout interior design doesn’t have to be a conglomeration of vivid colors, wild patterns, and extreme wall art. In the 21st century, the architects of interior arrangements are creating stunning homes based around monochromed themes, dark hues, industrial styled furnishings, and straight lines. This apartment by TOL’KO, is an illustration of the epitome of 21st century cool design splashed with simplistic style based on neutral shades and bovine concepts. This resident’s interior concept is all about neutral tones and soft textures. The result is a cozy yet reserved ambiance with glistening
